SHERMAN DIVISION

INNOVATION SCIENCES, LLC, Plaintiff,  v.  AMAZON.COM, INC., ET AL., Defendants.	Civil Action No.4:18-cv-00474-ALM Consolidated Lead Case
INNOVATION SCIENCES, LLC, Plaintiff,  v.  RESIDEO TECHNOLOGIES, INC., Defendant.	Civil Action No.4:18-cv-00475-ALM Member Case
INNOVATION SCIENCES, LLC, Plaintiff,  v.  HTC CORPORATION, Defendant.	Civil Action No.4:18-cv-00476-ALM Member Case

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

Plaintiff Innovation Sciences, LLC (“Innovation”), Amazon.com, Inc., Amazon Digital Services, LLC, Amazon Web Services, Inc. (collectively, “Amazon”), Resideo Technologies, Inc. (“Resideo”), and HTC Corporation (“HTC”) (collectively, the “Parties”) file this joint motion for entry of an amended scheduling order.

This country, like much of the world, is living through a serious medical crisis. President Trump declared a national emergency on Friday March 13, 2020 in response to the spread of the coronavirus. Courts and government agencies around the country have closed or limited operations. Indeed, under General Order No. 20-03, Chief Judge Gilstrap continued all criminal and civil jury trials in this district through May 1, 2020. Schools across the country have cancelled classes for weeks or for the remainder of the schoolyear, and in many parts of the country colleges and universities have closed for the semester. Many states have issued orders closing non-essential businesses and requesting that individuals isolate themselves in their homes. Air travel has become dangerous given the close confines of aircraft and the ease with which the Coronavirus spreads from person to person and can survive on hard surfaces for days. International air travel into the United States has been restricted by executive action.

In addition, the law firms for the Parties have had staff members decide to work from home to avoid potential exposure to the coronavirus and to attend to children whose schools have been closed. At least one firm has spouses of attorneys who have been quarantined because of international travel associated with their work or because of contact with persons diagnosed with coronavirus. Other firms have closed, requiring attorneys and staff members to work remotely.

Given these disruptions and the likelihood that the trials in these consolidated actions may be substantially delayed, the Parties have agreed to an amended schedule that impacts the Final Pretrial Conference in these actions currently scheduled for April 22, 2020. The Parties proposed amended scheduling order moves the date for submission of the Joint Final Pretrial Order, Motions in Limine, deposition designations and related filings and exchanges from April 1, 2020 to May 15, 2020. The Parties further propose to move the deadline for submission currently due on April 15, 2020 to May 29, 2020. Obviously, if this schedule is adopted by the Court, the Final Pretrial Conference currently set for April 22, 2020 will have to be reset to a date that is acceptable to the Court and its schedule. The Parties' proposed amended schedule also resets the dates for various briefs which were previously due this week and next.

In light of the foregoing, the Parties respectfully request that the Court enter the amended scheduling order attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

Dated: March 24, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Donald L. Jackson
